

JOURNAL - DAY 2 (Tuesday, 14/03/2023)

Today was our first full day of school in Oxford.

9:15 am - Morning at school

We started the morning off by taking the double decker bus, trying to get to the meeting point at Carfax Tower on time. Not the best weather nor the best coffee but as prof. Sinigaglia always says: "ADAPTING is the key".

We then headed towards our school which we later turned out to be a church (not just any but the FIRST methodist church). Since the lessons were very interactive, we were able to improve our speaking skills along with preparing for the upcoming CAE and biology exams.

12:30 pm - Packed "to launch" time

After throwing our lunch in the litter or dissecting our sandwiches we bought some decent food and ate it sitting on the mall's rooftop which had quite a view.

13:30 Back to school...again

We wrote A LOT, from essays to reports, proposals and more, which allowed us to become more familiar with the writing part of the CAE exam.

Oxford

PAST MODAL VERBS	SOMEONE /MIGHT/SHOULD HAVE WOULD DONE IT	IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN DONE

16:45 pm - End of lessons... finally some free time!!!

We took a stroll around the city, taking a look into souvenir and clothing shops.

We even enjoyed some time in a very posh tearoom :)

19:30 pm - Everyone at home

After a long and really pleasant day we all headed home to our host families and enjoyed our evenings there!
