CHRIST CHURCH COLLEGE

15/03/23

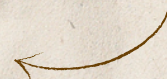

Jan, I can't find your paper

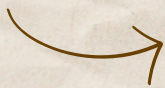

On Wednesday the 15th the day started with English and Biology lessons from 9:15 to 12:30 (this time we finished earlier than yesterday 😊)

First time trying Japanese noodles... delicious!

In the afternoon we visited the ancient and elegant Christ Church College!

Dark Academia vibes!

Our tour guides

A gem for Harry Potter fans: the big stairs where Harry and Draco met for the first time!

After our visit, we came back to the city centre, where we spent the evening shopping and chatting at cafés.

5 o' clock tea
like the British locals!

Selfie time :)

Lastly, we all had a great time having dinner together with our profs at a pub, and then we went back home to our host families.

Gossiping with prof. Levati...
very much needed 😊
